Project of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness
Founder-Acharya His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada

Our Mission

To show the example of His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, ISKCON Founder-Acharya, and a life dedicated purely to pleasing guru and Krishna, so his transcendental legacy of devotional service may be preserved and passed on intact to the many generations to come.

The TOVP A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Legacy Museum, a Tribute to our Founder-Acharya, is another grand project being undertaken by the TOVP Team. The projected size will begin with 1000 sq. ft., and in its fully developed stage will be a remarkable, state-of-the-art, world-class museum of 21,000 sq. ft., the largest of its kind for any spiritual leader in history. The project will begin under the direction of Daivi Sakti Dasi (ACBSP), creator and manager of the Prabhupada Museum in Vrindaban, Parama Rupa Das (ACBSP), Founder of the Bhaktivedanta Archives, and Srutirupa Dasi, a senior disciple of Srila Prabhupada, and is scheduled to open in February, 2025.

The idea for such a museum is long overdue, and currently most of Srila Prabhupada's memorabilia (tadiya) is scattered across the Earth, in the hands of various devotees and temples. We are attempting to collect these sacred artifacts from individual devotees and place them in one central location at ISKCON's World Headquarters in Sridham Mayapur, Srila Prabhupada's 'Place of Worship'. Once there they can be preserved and displayed for the benefit of millions of visitors and devotees to view for generations to come.

Please read on about the features of the museum and why gifting your Srila Prabhupada tadiya is the most important thing you can do right now. If you know someone who is in possession of such paraphernalia, please share this brochure and our website with them.

“O Devi, the most exalted system of worship is the worship of Lord Vishnu. Greater than that is the worship of tadiya, or anything belonging to Vishnu.” Lord Siva from Padma Purana

Srila Prabhupada comments on this verse,

“Sri Vishnu is sac-cid-ananda-vigraha. Similarly the most confidential servant of Kṛṣṇa, the spiritual master, and all devotees of Vishnu are tadiya. The sac-cid-ananda-vigraha, guru, Vaishnavas and things used by them must be considered tadiya, and without a doubt worshipable by all living beings.” (Cc. Madhya 12.38 purport)

Museum Features

- A chronological history of Srila Prabhupada's life will be presented through images, documents, multimedia presentations, a theater, dioramas, etc.
- Historical artifacts will be displayed with appropriate photos of Prabhupada using them.
- Sacred art he commissioned will be displayed.
- A large collection of the best photos of Srila Prabhupada will be displayed.
- Guided tours will be available for in-depth explanations.
- Seminars and workshops will educate and inspire visitors.
- A library and archives with books, letters, audios and videos will be available for research.
- Special events will be scheduled for further inspiration.
- Sacred spaces for reflection, meditation and japa will be made available.
- A gift shop will provide gifts, souvenirs, books, etc. for visitors.
- Prasadam distribution will be an essential part of the visitor experience.

Why To Give

- Preserving antiquated items on your own is not an easy task. We will make every effort possible to preserve your Prabhupada paraphernalia for hundreds of years.
- While in your possession, even if left in a Last Will it may be lost, stolen, discarded or trashed, and thus lost forever. Who can guarantee it will be properly cared for?
- While you may enjoy the spiritual pleasure of having Prabhupada paraphernalia in your home, imagine the benefit to millions of visitors to the TOVP.
- The concept of this museum is long overdue. Srila Prabhupada's legacy in this form is absolutely essential for posterity.

What To Give

- Clothing
- Typewriters, dictaphones, etc.
- Musical instruments
